

A mother duck's eggs hatched, but one duckling was different from rest

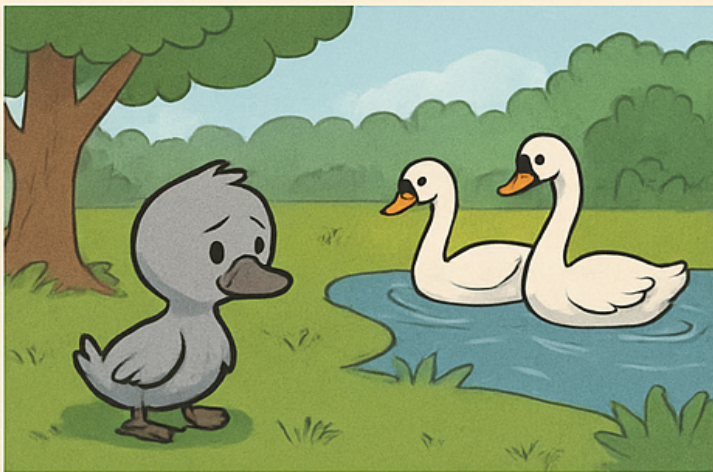

The other ducklings and animals in the farmyard teased and avoided the ugly duckling

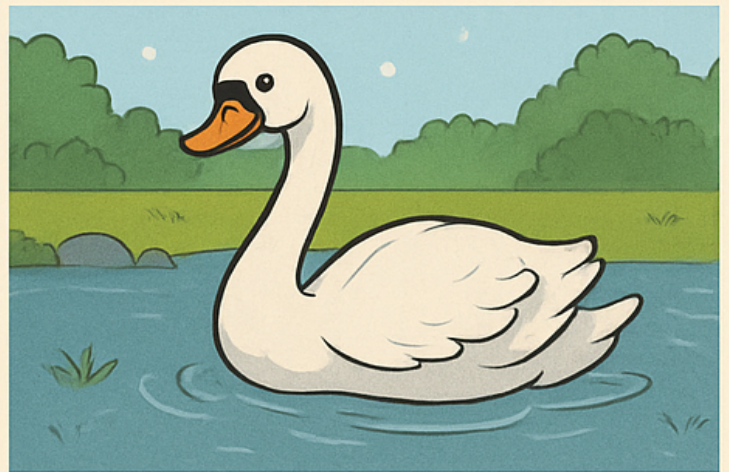

Feeling sad, the ugly duckling left home and wandered alone through the forest

He spent the winter alone, cold and hungry, hiding in the reeds a pond

When spring arrived, he saw a group of swans and wanted to join them

To his surprise, the duckling had grown into a beautiful swan, just like them!

MORAL: Believe in yourself and don't worry about what others say.
