

The Kind Cloud

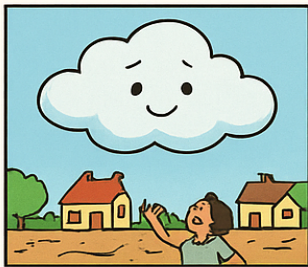

Once upon a time,
there was a kind claul
in the sky.

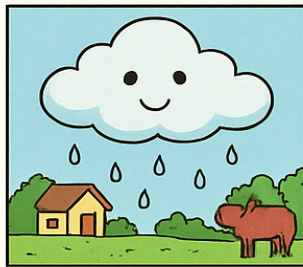

One summer, the land
was dry and people
were worried.

Both villages asked the cloud for rain and began to quarrel.

It gave half of its
rain to one village.

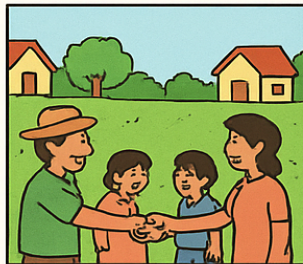

The children danced
in the cool rain.

Both villages were saved and felt grateful.

The people promised
to share and not fight
again.

The kind cloud felt
happy after helping

The kind cloud felt
bappy after helping both.

Moral: Kindness and fairness bring happiness to everyone.
